

Nina Mavrinac – 2nd Violin

Nina Mavrinac was born in Roswell, New Mexico. She did her undergraduate work at the University of Texas and received her BME from the University of Texas at San Antonio. She has played with the Austin Symphony, has played first violin with the Laredo Philharmonic Orchestra as well as principal 2nd violin with the Corpus Christi Symphony and the Victoria Symphony. Nina teaches Suzuki violin at her private studio in Converse, Texas and is a faculty member for the Youth Orchestra of San Antonio summer strings camp.

Each season, Nina coordinates a performance opportunity for young strings players to join the Mid-Texas Symphony in playing a concerto movement or other work. The young players are thrilled to be featured with their professional mentors.
